

I think the Do Not Call law is perfect. Before it went into affect my answering machine was full of "commercials" and now they want to attack my cell phone. I never buy from any company who calls me about their product, even if it's the best one on the market. Please protect my right to privacy.